NOTES:

For a better and safer experience, all on board crewmembers must be in physical and good health condition.

Be aware: in case a boat will not be present at the starting date or momentarily drops out from the rally, the organisation will not be liable of delivering a complete and satisfactory result of the experience. Late arrivals and drops will have to catch up with the flotilla and get self informed on the information given to all participants at the prior briefing.

Please scan your boat documents, insurances and your passports, and keep the files ready to be sent by email in case of organization needs or request from ports or the local authorities.

Please sign below every page to state that you have read all notes, the rules & regulation handbook and that you understood and accept all and each of the contents.
